

Oklahoma Disaster Institute 3rd Annual Disaster Medicine Symposium

Oklahoma
Disaster
Institute

AUSTERE MEDICINE

WHAT TO DO WHEN THE LIGHTS GO OUT.

APRIL 7, 2011

OU SCHOOL OF COMMUNITY MEDICINE
LEARNING CENTER AUDITORIUM

CLICK FOR MAP

Who Should Attend?

- Safety & Facility Managers
- ED Directors
- Critical Care Unit Managers
- Public Health Officials
- Disaster Relief Workers
- Hospital Administrators
- Nurse & Clinic Managers
- EMS Field Supervisors
- Emergency Response Teams

Keynote Speaker

Dr. Joseph Contiguglia,
Tulane University

Dr. Joseph Contiguglia received an M.D. in medicine and surgery from the University of Siena, an MPH&TM from

Tulane School of Public Health and Tropical Medicine and an MBA from St. Mary's University. He completed residencies in Internal Medicine at NYU and Aerospace Medicine at the USAF School of Aerospace Medicine. He holds the position of Professor of Clinical Environmental Health Sciences at the Tulane School of Public Health and Tropical Medicine.

Tentative Agenda:

Introductions

8:30-9:00 - Charles Stewart,
Oklahoma Disaster Institute

Keynote - Planning and Execution in the Real World

9:00-10:30 - Joseph Contiguglia,
Tulane University

Break

10:30-10:45

Triage and Damage Control Measures

10:45-12:00 - Greg Risk, US Army
Special Ops

Lunch

12:00-13:00

OK-1 DMAT Experience

13:00-13:45 - Art Wallace

Altered Standards of Care

13:45-14:30 - Michael Murphy

Break

14:30-14:45

Oklahoma's realtime experience in Austere Medicine

1445-1530 - David Hogan
Integris Southwest Medical Center

Haiti Austere Medical Care - World Health Organization

1530-1630 - Harry Hazelwood

Wrap up

1630-1645 - Charles Stewart

Our job in disaster medicine is to plan for the unthinkable

Register online at oudem.org

